Dear Miss Sheen:

That is a very good letter, and I am glad you wrote me, and very glad that you have my First Book of Spanish Songs and find some of your favorites there. I shall print a Second Book next Fall with 14 more Songs. Probably one of them will be "Mananitas", and another "El Trobador". The others you mention I do not know--except that the "Paloma Blanca" is not so old; and I think has been published in sheet form.

You show good taste and also practical intelligence in your liking for the Spanish language and in your desire to become a teacher of it. It is a wonderful language and treasure of culture; and it is also becoming more and more a valuable asset. I hope you will make a fine success of it.

With all good wishes to you,

Sincerely Yours,

of this fascinating language.

Hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience I remain

Sincerely yours.

Faith Sheen

Dear Sir:

I am very much interested in the Spanish language and Spanish customs of Old California.

As soon as I heard that a book of Spanish songs had been published I immediately purchased it and am delighted with it. There are several songs yet that I have tried to get from the Spanish people but have not been able to.

They are - Adelita se llania La Joven, Mañanitas, Yo Trobado and La Paloma Blanca. If you can tell me where I can get the words and music to these songs I will deem it a great favor.

I am a High School student and this is my third year of Spanish Mr. Hunter Thurmond is my professor.

Recently I appeared in Spanish costume and sang two songs, namely La Primavera and El Oculito
This is the second time I have appeared.

My great ambition is to be a Spanish teacher, and next year, when I finish High School I hope to go to the University of California and there take up a greater study
